Join us for an Enchanting Folk Chorale Concert at the UT Museum

On the last night of November, we welcome you to the White Hall of the UT Museum for an extraordinary musical experience. Come and listen as young, traditional musicians studying on the side of Toomemäe transport you to another world with their enchanting sounds.

The half-hour program features a selection of folk chorales from various corners of Estonia and further afield (from the Estonian-Swedish village of Gammalsvenskby in the territories of Ukraine). The program grew out of the practical work of Emma Elisabeth Toots. Together with the seven-member ensemble of young Eller students, we have been searching for a fresh yet traditional-sounding space for the selected folk chorales during these autumn months.

The entrance is free for everyone. Join us for a night of beautiful music and unforgettable memories.

Featuring the following talented musicians:

Liina-Mai Põldsepp – violin, Hiiu kannel and vocals

Jakob Ermann – violin and vocals

Mirtel Metsmaa – violin and vocals,

Mihkel Sildoja – flute and vocals

Randmar Tuulemäe – double bass and vocals

Riko Misnik – flute and vocals

Emma Elisabeth Toots on violin and vocals.

Author of the poster - Maret Merits

Supervisor of practical work - Ivika Hein
