ADVENT CONCERT

- On Thursday, 30 November, an Advent concert was held in Tartu Pauluse Church, opened by the combined choir with the song "Advendiküünal" conducted by Kadri Leppoja. Then, under the guidance of Küllli Karask, the children's choirs of Härma school performed in front of the audience. Grade 3-4 children's choir and the mixed choir of Miina Härma Song Society performed Mari Amor's prayer "Esä taivan".
- The boys' choir, led by Lilia Ilves, performed pop music hits by Estonian composers, which alternated with more traditional Christmas songs sung by the children's choir and conducted by Sirle Lorvi. In the last part of the concert, two parts of Tõnu Kõrvitsa's "Kreegi vihik" were played under the direction of Markus Leppoja and performed by the string quintet, girls' choir, and mixed choir. The piece is based on folk choral tunes collected by Cyrillus Kreek. The concert ended with the traditional Christmas carol, "Holy Night".
- Thanks to all conductors, composers, performers, organizers, assistants, and parents.

HEAD LAPSEVANEMAD!

Olete oodatud laste heaolu toetamise teemalisele loengule.

Lektoriks on Tartu Ülikooli ühiskonnateaduste instituudi kaasprofessor Dagmar Kutsar, kelle põhiline uurimisala on laste ja perede heaolu. Loengus keskendub Dagmar õpilaste subjektiivse heaolu hinnangutele, sh koolimeeldivuse kahanemisele vanusega ja selle taustal olevatele teguritele vaimse tervise võtmes.

Loeng kestab 1 tund, mille järgselt on pool tundi aega küsimusteks, vastusteks, aruteluks. Sobib igas vanuses laste vanematele.
