43. TAMME RELAY RACE

- On 26 September, the 43rd traditional Tamme Relay Race took place at Miina Härma Gümnaasium. Students from all classes participated, as well as the team of teachers. The classes prepared cakes, muffins and other delicacies as prizes.
- 8 team members from each class ran and two rode on scooters.
- 1st grade and seniors ran together in a big friend run.
- It was a pleasure to see the whole school family encouraging and cheering each other along the track.
- Thanks to the Physical Education teachers for organizing the event!

NOTICED AT HÄRMA

- 8a students Rahel Värton and Martha Johanna Garcia participated in the Nature House environmental research competition day on 27 September, where their team took 4th place among 29 teams overall.
- The Estonian girls' U15 national football team started competing in the UEFA friendly tournament on 30 September. Margaret Matto (7a) and Linda Lehtsaar (8b) will compete for the national team in the tournament.
- Maigi Varusk, our German teacher, writes in the Teachers' newspaper about which clothes are suitable for school and which are not.
- 1st October is International Music Day. You could hear clips on this topic during school breaks. If you are interested in listening to them again, you can find them at the following links:
